ORDER:

The C&IG, R&S in the reference read above has reported that the District Registrar Office, Visakhapatnam which is situated at Port Ward of Visakhapatnam is one of the oldest Government Buildings functioning for more than a century and it is in a dilapidated condition. Further, a conveyor belt of port trust is running over this office which is spilling a lot of iron ore dust around the office premises which caused a lot of harm to the employees health and also damage of Software and Hardware. He further reported that Visakhapatnam Port Trust expressed their willingness on the proposal of C&IG, R&S, to exchange the building of Registration and Stamps admeasuring 1965 Sq. Yards situated in TS No. 187, Block No.3 of Fort Ward, Visakhapatnam with that of Port Trust Building, Maharani pet, Visakhapatnam admeasuring 1400 Sq. yards and also stated that the said building is centrally located and convenient to the registering public and it is also sufficient to accommodate all the city offices of Deputy Inspector General (R&S), D.R. Office, D.R. (M.V. Audit) and also Sub Registrar Office, if a multi storied building is constructed.

The C&IG, R&S has therefore requested to accord permission to exchange the D.R. office building Visakhapatnam admeasuring 1965 square yards with that of Visakhapatnam Port Trust Building admeasuring 1400 Sq. Yards duly, waiving differences in site/plinth areas, if any on the proposed exchange.

Government after careful examination of the proposal of Commissioner and Inspector General of Registration and Stamps, A.P., Hyderabad hereby accord permission to exchange the District Registrar Office building, Visakhapatnam admeasuring 1965 Sq. Yards in TS No. 187, Block No.3 of Fort Ward, Visakhapatnam with that of Visakhapatnam Port Trust Building situated at Maharani pet ward, Visakhapatnam admeasuring 1400 Sq. yards, duly waiving the differences in site/plinth areas, if any, on the proposed exchange of Government Property.

The Commissioner and Inspector General of Registration and Stamps, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary further action in the matter.
